Exceptions to this Rule will however, be made in such Sections (in particular the Horticulture, Agriculture and Culinary Sections) where the Stewards thereof on their discretion permit having reference in particular to time available for completion of Section Books and preparation for Judging. In all Sections, it is a condition of entry that the Society will not under any circumstances, be held responsible for any loss, damage, or miss delivery of any livestock or other exhibit or exhibits at the Society's Show, or for any accident that may be caused through or by any exhibit. The Committee reserves the right to reduce Prize money for any event, or to cancel the event, if in the opinion of the Committee paucity of entries and/or competitors for such an event does not warrant the amount of Prize Money awarded.

The Society will not under any circumstances, be liable for any accident on the grounds or premises.

The Committee may refuse any entry without giving reasons for so doing.

Any person entering a protest in connection with the Show shall lodge the sum of $50.00 with the Secretary. The onus of proof shall be with the Lodger of the protest. The Committee shall decide all protests and their decision shall be final. If in the opinion of the Committee the protest may be frivolous the deposit shall be forfeited. Protests must be in writing and must be lodged with the Secretary before the day of judging. A protest in any particular class may only be made by a competitor in that class.
